Strained Dialect Dialect 1 is Recipe English, which can be found in cookbooks. For example, "Add one stick butter and stir". The severest form of Recipe is found more often on boxes of food than in books. Dialect 2 is Direction English, which can be found on paper inserted into boxes of objects that require assembly - thus the infuriation factor.

Letter Maze Shortest path: sank 1 goal 1 limber 1 sweet 1 cwm 1 more 1 hungry 1 card 1 gains 1 hard. Longest path: time 2 it 1 trust 3 history 3 whittle 2 shunt 3 lusty 3 steel 5 pestle 3 list. These should be the only answers, but I could be wrong. If you find alternative paths for either, or a greater total for the longest path, please let the editor or me know.
